

Leyburn & Mid-Wensleydale Business Association

Representing your business.

The association works to promote all aspects of business and tourism for the benefit of members, their businesses and the wider community.

We provide a voice for business in the area and the association is consulted by a wide range of agencies and strategic bodies. It influences the development of strategic and community plans and sits on various bodies including the Richmond Business Forum and Lower Wensleydale Area Board.

The association also supports and initiates activities which promote the area and contribute to its economic success.
